BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 48 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. GAO noted that: (1) VAs large, aged infrastructure could be the biggest obstacle confronting its efforts to transform itself from a hospital-based operator to a health care provider that relies on integrated networks of VA and non-VA providers to meet veterans health care needs; (2) over the next few years, VA could spend one of every four of its health care dollars operating, maintaining, and improving capital assets at its 181 major delivery locations that encompass over 4, 700 buildings on 18, 000 acres of land nationwide; (3) VA has delegated basic health care planning responsibilities to its 22 regional offices, each of which oversees from 5 to 11 major health care delivery locations; (4) each regional office has developed a 5-year business plan that includes management of the health care assets under its control; (5) these plans indicate that billions of dollars may be used to operate hundreds of unneeded buildings over the next 5 years or more; (6) this is because VA plans to continue to operate and therefore necessarily maintain its 181 major delivery locations, even though most locations operate in markets that include two or more VA locations; (7) if VA followed the Office of Management and Budgets (OMB) guidelines on managing capital resources, in GAOs view, its planning would focus on assets needed to meet veterans needs in 106 markets; (8) these markets include: (a) 66 with a single VA location; and (b) 40 with multiple locations; (9) VAs budgeting processes have weaknesses that could result in unwise capital asset investment decisions totalling hundreds of millions of dollars; (10) VA has significantly improved its centralized budget process by requiring more rigorous, systematic assessments of proposed major...
