These improvements are due to the possibility of using finer cards and finer combs and employing finer and shorter wools. History of the Firm. John and William Yewdall ran the mills until 1870, when they were succeeded by Fiss, Banes and Erben, the firm being composed of George W. Fiss, Colonel Charles H. Banes and Henry Erben. A year and a-half afterwards Theodore C. Search was admitted to the firm, the name being changed to Fiss, Banes, Erben and Co. This relation continued until 1883. In 1883 the firm was succeeded by the firm of Erben, Search and Co., composed of Henry Erben, Theodore C. Search, Charles H. Harding and Walter Erben and so stands today. In Fiss, Banes and Erbens time the capacity of the mills was increased fifty per cent. The business continued to increase and the quarters became...
