Core-Task Design: A Practice-Theory Approach to Human Factors

By Leena Norros, Paula Savioja, Hanna Koskinen

Morgan Claypool Publishers, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 235 x 190 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book focuses on design of work from the human-factors (HF) perspective. In the approach referred to as Core-Task Design (CTD), work is considered practice, composed of human actors, the physical and social environment, and the tools used for reaching the actors objectives. This book begins with consideration of an industrial case, the modernization of a nuclear power plant automation system, and the related human-system interfaces in the control room. This case illustrates generic design dilemmas that invite one to revisit human-factors research methodology: Human factors should adopt practice as a new unit of analysis and should accept intervention as an inherent feature of its methodology. These suggestions are put into practice in the CTD approach, according to which three general design functions are performed, those being: * understand-to-generalize-empirical analysis of the work at hand * foresee-the-promise-creation of concepts for future work, and * intervene-to-develop-participatory development and design of work. For fulfillment fulfillment of each of the design functions, several CTD methods are introduced. The methods are aimed at modeling the core task and analyzing how the actors actually take the core task...
