Adjective and Pronoun have name on belt or sash. Noun wears breast-plate with name in gilt upon it. Preposition carries shield with word divided into Pre-position. Sergeant Parsing wears zouave suit and is very military throughout. Pantomime of characters continues during the speaking of individual lines. Interjection wears a cap made of wire and covered with white tissue paper in such a manner as to represent an exclamation point, with the head for a period. Article is dressed in rags and his name is put on his back in crooked straggling letters. Madam Verb represents a fussy, bustling woman, with two curls on each side of the face, carries a large fan, and scorns Ad Verb, who fawns upon her constantly.
