Sky Castle Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 374 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.1in. x 1.2in. 5-star Reviews: I found myself staying up way past my normal bedtime. Murder, kidnapping, dark tunnels and scary skinwalkers keeps the story moving at a fast clip. Thinking persons thriller Read it! INTERNATIONAL BEST SELLER ASKS READERS, WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE Pamela Hegartys new thriller is action-packed with a mysterious shaman, a brutal murder, bloodthirsty pirates, vicious beasts, a ruthless villain, a gunfight at an archeological site, a brilliant and beautiful heroine and a ruggedly handsome herono spoilers here, only the highlights from the opening scenes. At the actions core is a lost Biblical artifact, the Breastplate of Aaron, and the deadly chase to find seven legendary gemstones stolen from it. According to Exodus, God commanded man to create the Breastplate so they could hear His word directly, an answer to humankinds most compelling question. The Seventh Stone is provocative and suspenseful, and may spark controversy as it challenges the line between reality and faith. Note from the author: In The Seventh Stone, I tried to create the type of book I love to read, an action-packed quest not only for a powerful artifact, but for the essence of what makes us who we are. I wanted to give readers a page-turner that raises questions more than gives answers. When I was researching and writing The Seventh Stone, I stumbled across historic facts and coincidences that were uncanny in how they fit into the plot. It was as though the story could actually be real and had to be told. And that is what The Seventh Stone is at its core, a daring look at what is real and what is faith. Id love to hear from you through a review or via my website...
