Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from No Compromise of Human Rights The Senate having under consideration the following joint resolution (H.R. No.51) proposing to amend the Constitution of the United States: fieceolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two thirds of both Houses concurring, ) That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of said Constitution, namely: Article. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed: Provided, That whenever the elective franchise shall be denied or abridged in any State on account of race or color, all persons therein of such race or color shall be excluded from the basis of representation. Mr. Sumner said: Mr. President: I hesitate to intrude again into this debate, which now, after the interjection of another debate on another question, is again renewed. I do it with unfeigned reluctance, and I hope not to trespass too much on your patience. The question before us, even in its simplest form, is of incalculable importance; but it has an added interest, inasmuch as it opens the whole vast subject of reconstruction. Into this field I shall not be tempted at this time, except to express a short opinion on the general principles we should seek to establish. Treason must be made odious, and to this end power must be secured...
