Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .out on to the Neral road a few yards above the point where the pipe crosses the road, and about a quarter of a mile above the drinking fountain on the upper terrace. The lowest path in the wood, after turning north for a short distance, leads to the upper terrace close to the drinking fountain. The whole distance of this round is about four miles; the time nearly two hours; the path fairly good all the way, but there is a little difficulty in finding it at the beginning near the Kathkaris burial-ground and also in choosing the proper track up Panorama Hill at the end. Round Alexander Po1nt. The walk round Alexander Point is interesting, but rough. At the meeting of the three roads to Alexander Point, the Clarendon Hotel and Chauk Point, just below the back of Paradise Lodge, in the corner between Alexander Point and the body of the hill, a path in the steep bed of a watercourse runs down the eastern face of the hill. For the greater part of the first five minutes, the path seems to have been paved like an ancient Roman road. Further down, in the bed of the stream, are a number of holes like shallow wells. The deepening of these pools, and the paving of the road, probably date from the time when the market-place was close by. A few yards further down a path runs into the wood on the left. Follow this...
