William NicholsonOscar-nominated for the screenplay based on his stage play Shadowlandshere offers an epic that sweeps from wartime England and Nazi-occupied France to the post-war world. "Nicholson's great strength lies in his ability to make the reader understand and care about his characters. He is particularly concerned with morality and love, subjects that have inspired all great novelists. It is a joy to find a contemporary writer passionately engaged with both."Elizabeth Jane Howard "A terrific book with a wonderful understanding of life in pre-war and post-war Britain. It reminds me of the first time I read Brideshead Revisited." Julia Gregson 548.
